AUTHOR GUIDELINES

The Author guidelines of the Oncology Insights journal are approved and adopted by the Executive Committee of the Serbian Association for Cancer Research.

Manuscript submission

By submitting a manuscript, authors affirm that their contribution to Oncology Insights journal is entirely original, has not been published before, is not under consideration for publication elsewhere, and has received approval for publication from all co-authors. Additionally, tacit or explicit consent must be obtained from the responsible authorities at the institution where the research was conducted.

Authors bear sole responsibility for the contents of their submissions, the accuracy of the experimental findings, and must ensure they possess proper permission from all involved parties to disseminate the data.

In the event that authors intend to incorporate figures or text excerpts from prior publications, they are obligated to seek authorization from the respective copyright holder(s). Evidence of such authorization must be provided upon submission. Materials lacking this evidence will be presumed to originate from authors.

Furthermore, authors must ensure that only those contributors who have made significant contributions to the submission are credited as authors. Conversely, all contributors who have made substantial contributions must be acknowledged as authors. Authors are requested to send the prepared manuscript to the email address info@sdir.ac.rs.

Pre-Evaluation Manuscript

Manuscripts undergo a preliminary assessment at the Editorial Office to ensure compliance with fundamental publishing criteria and quality benchmarks. Additionally, they are also screened for plagiarism.

Authors will receive an email confirmation upon receipt of their submission. Only contributions adhering to the provided guidelines can proceed for peer-review. Manuscripts not meeting these criteria will be returned to the authors with observations, comments and annotations.

Manuscript preparation

Authors are required to adhere strictly to the provided instructions. The manuscripts should be written in English with clarity and conciseness. Both American and British English usage are accepted, but a combination of these is discouraged.

The manuscript should contain the title, authors' names and affiliations, abstract, keywords, text of the manuscript:

- introduction
- material (patients) and methods
- results
- discussion
- conclusion

and

- statements
- references

Please clearly refer to and mark the position of figures and tables in the manuscript text. Do not include tables and figures in the manuscript, they should be submitted as separate files.

Title

The manuscript title should be clear, concise and explanatory.

Full name(s) of the author(s).

Write the full name and surname of each author.

Affiliation(s)

Author's name should be followed by a section with their affiliated department, institution (school, university, research institute, company), city and state. Please use superscripts to connect authors and affiliations.

Corresponding author

Clearly indicate who is responsible for correspondence at all stages of publication, including post publication. Ensure that e-mail and postal address is provided.

Abstract

Abstract should contain a short review of the methods and the most important results of the work, so that its original text can be used in referential periodicals and databases. Do not include citations in the Abstract.

Keywords

Keywords are listed in a separate line at the end of the abstract. Maximum of five key words should be relevant to the topic and content of the paper, in alphabetical order.

Units

The SI system should be used for all scientific and laboratory data.

Figures

Photos, drawings and other illustrations should be of good quality (a minimum of 300 dpi for color images, 1200 dpi for graphs) and supplied as separate files.

Funding and Acknowledgements

This section should include any pertinent funding and acknowledgement information (funding body, grant No., acknowledged individuals or companies).

Data Availability

This section should briefly describe the availability of the supporting data (as Supplementary Information), deposited elsewhere (datasets, preprints), or any exceptions or limitations to the sharing of data or materials according to Open Science principles.

Conflict of interest

All authors are requested to disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest including any financial, personal or other relationships with other people or organizations that could influence, or be perceived to influence, the presented work. In case of uncertainty, disclosure is preferred.

Ethics statement

All submissions should conform to standard ethical guidelines, details of which can be found on the website of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE). See also Recommendations for the Conduct, Reporting, Editing and Publication of Scholarly Work in Medical Journals (www.icmje.org). If applicable, the Ethics statement should include the name and number of the Ethics committee institution and approval and whether human participants signed an informed consent.

Declaration of Generative AI and AI-assisted technologies

Authors are requested to disclose the Generative AI and AI-assisted technologies used during the manuscript preparation process, if any. For further details on the allowed scope please refer to the Journal Editorial Policy, section The use of generative AI and AI-assisted technologies:

<https://www.sdir.ac.rs/editorial-policy/>

References

Reference numbers should be assigned in the exact order they first appear and should be placed in round brackets (1) in the text. Reference list should be compiled at the end of the article and numbered according to their appearance in the text (Vancouver style). The list of references should exclusively comprise works that have been cited in the text, and they should be cited in the language of their original publication.

After Acceptance

Upon acceptance, the corresponding author will be provided with the Authors Statement for signature. We are committed to expediting the publication of your article with precision. To streamline the process, please consolidate all corrections in a single communication. Take care to review thoroughly before responding, as we cannot guarantee inclusion of subsequent correction. Proofreading is the sole responsibility to author(s).
